Publication Policy

BELUR MATH, HOWRAH, WEST BENGAL, PIN: 711 202

Introduction:

Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira is committed to publishing high-quality academic, educational, spiritual, cultural and research-based books and journals that contribute to knowledge dissemination. The institution encourages scholarly works that uphold academic integrity, originality and social relevance.

Publication Standards:

All manuscripts submitted for publication shall be evaluated by the Editorial Committee to ensure their academic merit, originality, relevance, language quality and suitability for publication. The Committee reserves the right to accept, reject or recommend revisions to any manuscript.

Plagiarism and Academic Integrity Policy:

The institution maintains a strict policy against plagiarism and academic misconduct. Authors must ensure that their work is original and properly acknowledges all sources. Submitted manuscripts may be screened using plagiarism-detection software.

A similarity index exceeding 10% (excluding references, quotations and standard academic expressions) may require revision or may result in rejection. Any instance of plagiarism, fabrication of data, falsification of information or unethical scholarly conduct may lead to rejection or withdrawal of publication.

Artificial Intelligence (AI):

Authors may use AI-based tools for language improvement, formatting assistance or technical support. However, AI tools shall not be credited as authors. Authors remain fully responsible for the originality, authenticity, accuracy and integrity of the content. Any substantial use of AI tools must be disclosed to the Editorial Committee.

Copyright:

Unless otherwise specified, authors retain copyright of their work while granting Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira the right to publish, reproduce, distribute and archive the publication in print and electronic formats.

Where applicable, publications may be released under a Creative Commons license or any other licensing framework determined by the institution. Proper acknowledgment of the original publication must be maintained in all subsequent reproductions or distributions.

License Statement:

The content of any publication of Sikshanamandira is licensed under the Creative Commons Attribution–NonCommercial–ShareAlike 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-SA 4.0). This license permits users to copy, share, distribute and adapt the material for non-commercial purposes, provided appropriate attribution is given to the original source. Any derivative works must be distributed under the same license terms.

Conflict of Interest:

Authors, editors and contributors must disclose any financial, professional, institutional or personal interests that may influence the preparation, evaluation or publication of a manuscript. Any potential conflict of interest shall be reviewed by the Editorial Committee to ensure transparency and fairness.

Privacy Policy:

Personal information submitted by authors, editors, reviewers or contributors shall be used solely for publication-related purposes and shall not be disclosed to third parties without consent, except where required by law or institutional policy.

Withdrawal Policy:

Authors wishing to withdraw a manuscript must submit a formal written request to the Editorial Committee. Withdrawal requests submitted after editorial processing or final acceptance may be considered only under exceptional circumstances.

Publication Ethics:

Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira adheres to the highest standards of ethical publishing. Authors, editors and contributors are expected to uphold principles of honesty, transparency, accountability and respect for intellectual property. The institution follows recognized national and international standards of publication ethics and reserves the right to take appropriate action in cases of ethical misconduct.

Final Authority:

The Editorial Committee of Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira shall have the final authority regarding all matters relating to manuscript evaluation, publication decisions, editorial revisions and policy implementation.
