Describe the institutional process of planning and/or reviewing, revising curriculum and adapting it to the local context in not more than 100 - 200 words

Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira is an autonomous college under the University of Calcutta. We offer B.Ed., M.Ed., M.Phil., and Ph.D. courses with our own curriculum. The following committees—Curriculum Framing and Planning Committee (CFPC), Board of Studies (B.O.S), Teachers' Council (T.C), Academic Council (A.C), and Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC)—are responsible for developing, reviewing, and finalizing the curriculum. Suggestions and feedback from teachers, students, employers, practice teaching schools, and alumni are collected and analysed by the CFPC. Recommendations for curriculum updates are forwarded through BOS, to the Academic Council and IQAC for final approval. Local needs and demands are prioritized in curriculum development.

- Culture-specific pedagogy is encouraged in teaching internships.
- Multilingual contexts are celebrated, offering curriculum options in various languages.
- Language skills across the curriculum are promoted to bridge local and global demands.
- Communication skills of learners from diverse backgrounds are enhanced.
- Learners engage in rigorous research on local educational problems.

Communication about the curriculum is primarily done through the college website. Orientation classes inform students about the curriculum, timetable, assessment procedures, and academic calendar. Teachers facilitate curriculum management discussions.

2.2 - Honoring Student Diversity

2.2.1 - Assessment process is in place at entry level to identify different learning needs of students and their level of readiness to undergo professional education programme and also the academic support provided to students Describe the assessment process at entry level to identify different learning needs of students and their level of readiness to undergo professional education programme and also the academic support provided to students, in not more than 100-200 words.

We evaluate B.Ed. & M.Ed. trainees upon entry to our college. Assessments focus on three crucial components: effective communication skills, subject-specific theoretical knowledge, and teaching skills (pre-pedagogy phase). Trainees receive feedback and guidance for improvement.

Effective Communication Skill: To excel as teachers in a globalized world, trainees must possess attractive speaking skills. We assess their English speaking and reading abilities and provide communicative skills courses throughout the four semesters of the B.Ed. program. Completion earns credits each semester.

Subject Specific Theoretical Knowledge: Trainees' domain-specific theoretical knowledge is assessed initially to understand their expertise acquired from undergraduate and postgraduate courses. Teacher educators guide them in bridging knowledge gaps and clarifying doubts, emphasizing the importance of subject-specific content knowledge for effective pedagogy.

Teaching Skill (Pre-pedagogy Phase): Trainees from different subjects are assigned initial teaching topics from their respective domains. This assessment phase gauges their inclination towards teaching. No pedagogical concerns are addressed. This phase informs teacher educators about trainees' later pedagogical practices. Training in psychology of teaching, instructional technology, and subject discipline follows. Trainees also engage in simulation and micro-teaching practice before internships.

2.4.8 - Internship programme is systematically planned with necessary preparedness Describe institution's preparatory efforts at organizing internship programme in not more than 100-200 words with respect to the following: Selection/identification of schools for internship: participative/on request Orientation to school principal/teachers Orientation to students going for internship Defining role of teachers of the institution Streamlining mode/s of assessment of student performance Exposure to variety of school set ups

Internship programs are meticulously organized at RKM Sikshanamandira. To ensure effective internships for student-teachers, teacher mentoring is provided. For B.Ed. student-teachers, the internships are divided into phases:

Phase I (1 Week): The School Exposure Program takes place during the first semester, where student teachers work on projects related to different school curricula.

Phase II (3 Weeks): A School Attachment (Micro Teaching) Program is conducted in the second semester.

Phase III (8 Weeks) & Phase IV (8 Weeks): Two internships of eight weeks each are carried out in the third and fourth semesters in the same school.

For M.Ed. student-teachers, the internships consist of two phases:

Phase I (2 Weeks): Practice Teaching and Peer Observation are conducted.

Phase II (2 Weeks): In the second phase, M.Ed. trainees observe and assess the performance of B.Ed. trainees during their school internships.

Schools for internships are selected primarily from Bengali medium schools affiliated with WBBSE, with the inclusion of Hindi and English medium schools affiliated with WBBSE/CBSE/ICSE to cater to diverse linguistic backgrounds.

Orientation programs familiarize students, principals, and teachers with internships, rules, and pedagogy. Institution teachers mentor interns, visit schools, monitor performance, and communicate with headmasters. Assessment includes peer observation, feedback, and external evaluation. Students experience diverse school setups.

2.4.11 - Institution adopts effective monitoring mechanisms during internship programme. Describe in not more than 100-200 words, the monitoring mechanisms adopted to ensure optimal impact of internship in schools with specific reference to the role of teacher educators, school principal, school teachers and peers.

Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira prioritizes the implementation of a robust monitoring mechanism for the internship program of trainee-teachers. The program spans two semesters, namely the course code-134 school internship (Phase-I, 3rd semester) and the course code-144 school internship (phase-II, 4th semester) in the B.Ed. curriculum.

To ensure effective preparation, we assign a group leader from each practice teaching school to collect vital records such as attendance, usage of teaching materials, and lesson plans. Our dedicated teacher-educators conduct regular visits to these schools, meticulously reviewing teaching materials, lesson plans, and trainee-teacher performance to uphold professional standards. Adopting a rotational basis, each teacher-educator visits all selected practice teaching schools to maintain administrative synchronization.

Furthermore, our M.Ed. trainees visit the practice teaching schools to observe B.Ed. classes, facilitating an additional layer of monitoring. Teacher-educators document their observations in comment-books, serving as a valuable testimony for the monitoring process. The cooperation of headmasters and teachers from the practice teaching schools further strengthens the system. They provide feedback and suggestions while monitoring the trainee-teachers' classes.

Throughout the internship period, trainee-teachers are assessed by the teachers of the respective practice teaching schools, encompassing tasks such as creating class routines, conducting formative tests, and managing administrative responsibilities. This hands-on experience, along with the guidance received from headmasters, enriches their skillset.

Collecting feedback from stakeholders enhances the overall quality of our trainee-teachers. This collaborative approach ensures the internship program's monitoring mechanism remains effective, fostering a positive and spirited environment for trainee-teachers to thrive.

2.6 - Evaluation Process

2.6.1 - Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) of student learning is in place in the institution
Describe details of the Continuous Internal Evaluation in the institution highlighting its major components in not more than 100-200 words

Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira, as an autonomous college, implements an internal evaluation system approved by the Academic Council. Internal assessment holds a weightage of 20% for B.Ed. and 30% for M.Ed. programs. In B.Ed., theory papers carry 80 marks, while practicum papers carry 20 marks. M.Ed. consists of theory papers worth 70 marks and practicum papers worth 30 marks. Our student teachers undergo continuous internal assessment through various assignments to gauge their holistic development. B.Ed. papers like Developmental Psychology, Psychology of Teaching & Instructional Technology, Yoga and Health Education, Visual and Performing Arts in Education, and others are evaluated internally. Micro teaching sessions and internships also contribute to the ongoing assessment. Remaining papers are assessed through assignments before the final semester exam. M.Ed. papers, such as Psychology of Learning and Development, Introduction to Research Methodology, Advanced Research Methods, Yoga Education, and more, undergo continuous internal evaluation. Teacher educators provide guidance to students during internships, addressing their weaknesses. Support is offered for maintaining a proper writing pattern in practicum and practical papers, aiding final exam performance. Students preparing proposals for action research and community outreach are given extra care. Probing questions are assigned, and writing standards are monitored. Additional support and special classes are provided if needed. Continuous internal evaluation is an integral part of our institute's evaluation mechanism.

2.6.3 - Mechanism for grievance redressal related to examination is operationally effective

The Controller of Examinations (COE) at Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira efficiently handles grievance redressal. As an autonomous college, the Principal serves as the Head Examiner for all exams, with an appointed Officer-in-Charge from the faculty. We prioritize resolving exam-related grievances promptly through the COE, maintaining transparency in our evaluation process. Any reported anomalies are immediately forwarded to the COE, who takes appropriate steps to address the issue. Supplementary exams are arranged within two months of result publication for students who fail to clear the final semester, ensuring timely completion of their course. Students dissatisfied with their evaluation can appeal to the COE to obtain photocopies of their assessed answer scripts. They can also request a review of their marks by paying the applicable fees, contributing to the smooth functioning of our evaluation system. In cases of absent or physically ill students during assignment submissions, special dates are arranged, and viva assessments are conducted if necessary. Paper reviews involve a third evaluator if the obtained marks exceed or fall short of the original marks by 15%, and the final marks are determined based on the average of the two best evaluations. If students encounter any exam-related issues, they can promptly approach the COE for assistance and solutions.

2.6.4 - The institution adheres to academic calendar for the conduct of Internal Evaluation Describe the mechanism of adhering to academic calendar for the conduct of Internal Evaluation in the institution in not more than 100-200 words.

The college adheres to the academic calendar for conduction of internal and external evaluation. We first prepare a preliminary plan to arrange various exams like pre-semester and semester-examinations along with various internal exams and then forward it to the Controller of Examinations (C.O.E.) for finalization. Once this is completed, the finalized version of the academic calendar duly signed by the Principal is displayed on the board for further communication. Apart from this, our teacher-educators also refer our trainee-teachers to the academic calendar for the internal and external evaluations. Many oral tests are held and many assignments are given for practicum papers. In B.Ed, the allotted score for practicum paper ranges from 20 to 10 marks. In addition, some practical papers in B.Ed carry 50 and 25 marks. In M.Ed, the allotted score for practicum paper ranges from 30 to 15 marks. Besides, some practical papers in M.Ed carry 50 marks. Student-teachers are repeatedly made aware of the internal evaluation and also encouraged to perform better in the final exam as well. If any minute fault arises in the given assignments, our teacher-trainers endeavour to supervise the student-teachers to the maximum extent possible. So in that sense, we do strictly adhere to our prior planning for holding internal exams. The student-teachers are prepared in such a way through a semester that they become very much familiar with our system of internal evaluation. This is what is reflected in our academic calendar for the conduction of internal evaluation.

2.7.5 - Performance of students on various assessment tasks reflects how far their initially identified learning needs are catered to. Describe with examples the extent to which the assessment task and the performance of students reflect their initially identified learning needs in not more than 100 -200 words.

At Ramakrishna Mission Sikshanamandira, our teacher-educators conduct initial assessments to gauge the performance level of newly admitted student-teachers. These assessments help identify areas of improvement and provide necessary support to align their performance with their peers. The assessments focus on communication skills, teaching skills, ICT skills, and content knowledge.

Communication Skill: Student-teachers' fluency and proficiency in English are assessed initially. Remedial classes are offered to those who need improvement. Additionally, CC:118-Communicative Skill (EPC 2A) is taught to enhance linguistic skills across all semesters.

Teaching Skill: Though evaluating teaching skill at the initial stage is challenging, our teacher-educators assess presentation skills and inclination towards teaching. Remedial measures such as micro-teaching classes (CC-127), simulation teaching, school attachment, and brainstorming drills are utilized to enhance performance.

ICT Skill: Student-teachers' ICT skills are assessed, including basic computer operations and knowledge of applications like MS-Word, MS-Excel, Power-Point Presentation, web browsing, and Google Workspace. Remedial classes are conducted to address any gaps in knowledge.

Content Knowledge: The proficiency of student-teachers in their respective subjects is evaluated through oral and written tests. Adequate content knowledge is essential for effective classroom instruction. Remedial classes are provided to address any deficiencies.

Through these initial assessments and targeted interventions, we ensure that our student-teachers receive the necessary guidance and support to enhance their skills and knowledge for a successful teaching career.
