

Pedagogy of History(Paper— 7th`/8th`)

Introduction:

1. History is a Science or Arts.
2. History is the description of Past Events.
3. History is the Mother of all Subjects.
4. History is the study of Man .

General Aims of Teaching History.

- 1. To promote self-expression.
- 2. To promote self-understanding.
- 3. To give proper conception of time, space and society.
- 4. To teach tolerance.
- 5. To cultivate valuable in intellectual attitudes.
- 6. To teach moral principles.

Continued

- 7. To cultivate a forward look.
- 8. To impart mental training.
- 9. To give training for handling controversial issues.
- 10. To help resolve our contemporary social and individual problems.
- 11. To foster national feelings.
- 12. To develop international understanding.
- 13. To develop some useful mechanical skills.

General Objectives Of Teaching History

- 1. To develop in the students the interest for history.
- 2. To develop the power of imagination.
- 3. To make students conscious of the influence of past on their present life.
- 4. To develop spirit of patriotism and world-Brotherhood.
- 5. To develop creativity among the students.

Continued

6. To develop analytic power among the students.
7. To develop the evolution of human societies.
8. To develop an understanding of the integrated nature of historical development.
9. To improve the various components of Indian culture.

According to NCERT

1. To develop historical perspective for the understanding of the contemporary world.
2. To enrich the understanding of those aspects of Indian historical development.
3. To cultivate the Indian and world history.

Question

- 1. Discuss in briefly, the general objectives of teaching history. ----- 5.

References

1. English Book

Teaching of History---- J.C. Aggarwal. (Vikas Publishing House Private Limited).

2. Bengali Book

Itihas Shikshan Paddatir Naba Rupayan.-----
Bhaktibhusan Bhakta O Chandan Bhakta. (Rita Book Agency).